Action Taken Report (Stakeholder's Feedback Academic Session 2020-21)

1. It was noticed that students' feedback for some of the faculty has been less than the acceptable benchmark of 3.50. PGP chairperson discussed the students' feedback with the concerned faculty members and requested them to ensure the quality of lectures on important parameters such as lecture content quality, syllabus coverage and use of case studies.
2. The general feedback from recruiters has been found to be good. However, some senior human resource managers suggested that institute should give more importance to communication skills. They informed that GHS-IMR students are good in communication skills but there is a scope of improvement. The board of studies to discuss this feedback and develop a course of action.
